For San Jose City Council D3

"As a mother, attorney, and community advocates, I have seen our district grow into a vibrant place. Yet we have more to do to move our neighborhoods forward. Our District is the civic and economic center for San Jose. We need to listen to and start working with our residents to create a San Jose that works for everyone."

Elizabeth Will Tackle Issues Head On

TACKLING HOMELESSNESS

No person or family should have to choose sleeping in their car or public sidewalks. Let us define compassion in more active-oriented ways. Elizabeth will tackle the causes of homelessness by coordinating with county and state, expanding housing solutions using innovative technologies, and address mental health crisis with the County's help.

STRENGTHENING OUR ECONOMY + CREATING JOBS

Elizabeth will leverage San Jose's increasing high-tech presence to create stable jobs and careers that build a better future for residents. She will form a D3 Small Business Task Force to help small businesses find the resources from the city and other channels.

MAKING OUR CITY SAFE & CLEAN

Elizabeth will work to reduce break-ins and car thefts. She will also create a mental health response team, prioritize and fully fund after school programs for students, and reduce blight.

COVID-19 RECOVERY + HEALTHCARE

Helping our communities fight and get through the COVID-19 pandemic and restore economic vibrancy and increase public safety

BETTERING OUR SCHOOLS

Economic Inequality can be traced back to, and cured by, education. Elizabeth will work with the county to expand pathways to higher education and introduce STEAM and STEM curriculum in our schools that will lead to fulfilling STEM careers.

ELIZABETH CHIEN-HALE: A Fresh Perspective For San Jose City Council

Hi Neighbor,

I immigrated to the U.S. when I was 13 years old. Our country and communities welcomed me with open arms and instilled in me the belief that anything is possible. My first job was in a Chinese restaurant; eventually, I ended up in the tech space. As I put down roots in San Jose, I started to work with San Jose Downtown Residents Association, teach at the Lincoln School of Law, served on the Appeals Hearing Board, to observe the diversity in the City and to create a San Jose that welcomes all people. I would like the opportunity to share and contribute to the society that has gave me many opportunities.

In San Jose, you do feel like everybody has an equal voice – and that anything is possible. Over the years, I have seen our neighborhoods blossom, but I've also seen the challenges impacting our families. I don't want to just be an advocate; I want to find and implement solutions to solve the critical problems that our residents face on a daily basis.

If I am elected, my commitments are to manage the city's finances conservatively, and to build vibrant business districts while maintaining the character of residential neighborhoods.

My commitment to you is to work hard to address homelessness, maintain public safety, reboot the economy, build better transportation infrastructure, enhance educational opportunities, and to honor the environment. As we grow and prosper, we will make sure all D3 residents will share the growth and opportunities equally.

Over the next months, I hope to earn your support and vote. Thank you!

Elizabeth's Experience

A Proven Leader

As a neighborhood association president, Elizabeth understands our district's needs including fighting to make our neighborhoods safer, improve our quality of life, and ensure we can create a city that works for everyone. As a member of the City's Appeals Hearing Board, Chien-Hale also has worked to enforce cases including those regarding San Jose's blight, unsafe and unsanitary living conditions, other legal matters impacting our community.

Expanding Opportunity

Elizabeth is working to ensure every family has the opportunity to live the American Dream. Elizabeth is working to engage and build community among San Jose's downtown residents to ensure their voices are effectively represented. She is running for San Jose City Council District 3 to help provide better and newer opportunities for San Jose residents and families.
